- 2) Not have received a grant within the past two school years
- 3) The recipient is required to present the project or its results at the next annual GAGC convention

Procedure: Information submitted shall include:

- 1) The completed cover page (attached) and signed statement of understanding of conditions.
- 2) A statement of purpose which
 - a) describes the situation, need, or conditions which prompted this request.
 - b) states and explains the applicant's reasons for undertaking the activity, i.e., rationale and need.
- 3) Goals of the project which
 - a) are supported by a measurable objective(s).
 - b) reflect the benefit participants will receive from the project.
- 4) A procedural outline of the activity including
 - a) timeline showing steps and evaluation checks.
 - b) the relationship of steps or phases to the stated goals and objectives.
- 5) Evaluation methods to be used in determining the success of the project and the achievement of stated goals.
- 6) Resource people who will be assisting in the implementation of the project (List each person's name, position/title, address, phone number.)
- 7) Resource materials, descriptions to include
 - a) item name, vendor name, cost (if awarded, receipts must be kept for all purchases and submitted to the treasurer).
 - b) use in the project.
- 8) Final budget for:
